Dear HBCU Network Members,

We are pleased to share with you the finalized information for the Virtual Mandarin Course being held in Spring 2021. Attached are the following:

- Virtual Mandarin Course – Course Outline
- Virtual Mandarin Course – Flyer

Due to the overwhelming interest in the course from the HBCU Network members, please be reminded that the class is limited to 30 HBCU students. To facilitate student selection, we ask that you:

1. Review and share the attached course information with interested students.
2. Direct interested students to complete the application (forthcoming), and send to you.
3. Select a maximum of five students from your institution who are committed to completing the course.
4. Send completed applications to Wilson Global no later than Friday, January 8, 2021 via email to [\[hbcu.china.network@wilsonglobalcomm.com\]\(mailto:hbcu.china.network@wilsonglobalcomm.com\)](mailto:hbcu.china.network@wilsonglobalcomm.com).

Please advise the students that all of them may not be selected as finalists in the course since it is a competitive process. Do let us know if you have any questions or concerns.

Best regards,

HBCU - China Network

About The Course

Nǐ hǎo! 你好! Virtual Mandarin Course is a Chinese course for beginners. Classes will be taught by a professor from Beijing Foreign Studies University with the support of a group of Chinese students. Upon completion, students will be able to understand and use simple Chinese phrases, meet basic needs for communication and possess the ability to further your Chinese language studies.

You will learn:

- More than 150 commonly used words;
- Around 20 key grammar points;
- Fun facts about China

At the end of the course, should you meet certain criteria, you will be awarded with a certificate. You will also be required to give a presentation in Chinese on the final lesson.

Requirements

Students should have access to a webcam and microphone as classes will be conducted online via Zoom.

Students are expected to attend 90% of the lessons.
